

IN SOLIDARITY WITH OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS

St. George supports the International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) Response to the Storm

IOCC's Frontliners, highly trained clergy and laity, have deployed and are providing emotional and spiritual care to people affected by the storm. After the waters recede, IOCC's work to clean and rebuild homes will continue into the weeks and months following the storm's devastation.

How Can You Help?

1. Pray for those who are affected by the storm and IOCC's Frontliners as they support people in tremendous need
2. Contribute a financial gift to IOCC's Hurricane Harvey Response Fund enabling IOCC to react quickly and effectively to the many needs in the region
3. Assemble clean-up buckets so people can begin the overwhelming job of cleaning up. All clean-up buckets will be collected and shipped from St. George by next Sunday, September 10.
